

Arts-Based Learning and Arts Access and Participation Grants made April 2016

Paul Hamlyn Foundation is very pleased to announce that in April 2016, we made the following grants from our Arts-Based Learning: More and Better and Arts Access and Participation: More and Better Funds. Details of all grants made are searchable in our online database.

Arts-Based Learning: More and Better

KIT Theatre

Grant amount: £65,000

Grant duration: 24 months

Location: London, North West and West Midlands

Project: Inspiration Days: a new Adventure in Learning

Description: KIT Theatre designs and delivers Adventures in Learning (AIL). These combine digital and live interactions with characters, who are presented as real and in need of help, thus creating a purposeful context for learning. KIT will expand their repertoire of Inspiration Days (a one-day AIL model), establish a regional delivery infrastructure in Birmingham and Manchester and build evidence for the impact of their approach.

Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Society

Grant amount: £329,000

Grant duration: 48 months

Location: North West

Project: In Harmony Liverpool

Description: Royal Liverpool Philharmonic's In Harmony Liverpool programme uses orchestral music making to improve the health, education and aspirations of young people aged 0-18 and their families in Everton. This is the third grant from PHF, supporting an ambitious proposal that includes expansion in the early years, musical progression for hundreds of young people and an increased focus on training for teachers.

Sistema Cymru - Codi'rTo

Grant amount: £53,000

Grant duration: 18 months

Location: Wales

Project: Raise the Roof: Learning through Music

Description: Codi'r To is a community development project, which aims to improve children's lives through musical tutoring. Working in two Welsh-speaking primary schools in North Wales, Sistema Cymru provides opportunities for pupils to learn through music. This grant will provide support for the development and growth of this relatively new organisation.

Arts Access and Participation: More and Better

Arts Derbyshire

Grant amount: £171,000

Grant duration: 48 months

Location: East Midlands

Project: Matinée

Description: Arts Derbyshire is a membership organisation with a remit to widen access to and participation in the arts and build the capacity of the cultural sector in Derbyshire. Working in partnership with independent film venues and voluntary-led film clubs, Arts Derbyshire will establish a dementia friendly film programme across the county. They will explore how new models of film presentation can ensure that film is accessible for people with dementia and their carers. Working with its member organisations and partners, including the BFI Film Audiences Network and Alzheimer's Society, Arts Derbyshire aims to advance policy and practice dementia-friendly arts.

The Lightbox

Grant amount: £70,000

Grant duration: 24 months

Location: South East

Project: Core support of community engagement work

Description: The Lightbox is a gallery and museum in Woking. This grant is to secure the legacy of the Our Museum initiative and help to strengthen and widen both the community ownership and access to the gallery.

Loud in Libraries

Grant amount: £73,000

Grant duration: 24 months

Location: North West and West Midlands

Project: Get It Loud In Libraries

Description: This grant will support a two year programme of live music alongside digital media and learning events for young people aged 16 -24 in libraries in the North West and West Midlands. It will also further develop the model for wider dissemination. Loud in Libraries will establish a central youth advisory board to support the recruitment of youth cultural ambassadors for each library partner to inform local planning and delivery of the programme.

Site Gallery

Grant amount: £322,000

Grant duration: 48 months

Location: Yorkshire and the Humber

Project: On The Road: Expanding youth participation for art & life

Description: Site Gallery is Sheffield's leading centre for contemporary art, supporting new work, community access and nurturing artistic talent with a focus on moving image, new media and performance. This grant will support Site Gallery to deliver On the Road - a four year programme to significantly grow their youth audiences and expand their work connecting local young people with art and artists.
